Hotel Birger Jarl

Tulegatan 8
Stockholm
Sweden

"Our restaurant serves as a living room where you can eat dinner in peace after a hectic day, or meet business acquaintances for lunch. The details have been carefully thought out, but the atmosphere remains relaxed and undemanding."

"Our kitchen offers the finest Swedish produce, and you will be served both classic Swedish dishes in modern form and the best of crossover cuisine. We are also keen to get you off to a good start every day by serving an ample, varied and delicious breakfast buffet."
